ANNEXURE I

Indian GPA Conversion

Marks are converted as follows:

- For a grading scheme with a 40% minimum passing mark, marks are converted to letter grades using the following scale:

60 – 100%	A
50 – 59%	B
40 – 49%	C
0 -39%	F*

* Note: In cases where exams which have been failed and successfully retaken, the F's are not considered when converting the GPA.

- Using the maximum marks possible for each exam in which a given mark was earned, a maximum mark total is calculated for A's, B's and C's, and F's.
- The maximum mark total for each mark is multiplied by the value of the mark, with the value of A being 4.0, B 3.0, and C 2.0, giving a quality point total for each mark.
- A grand total is calculated from the maximum marks totals and also from the quality points totals.
- The quality points grand total is divided by the maximum marks grand total and the result is the student's cumulative GPA.

Sample GPA conversion for a student who earned the following marks:

	Max.			Max.			Max.
62%	100	A	54%	100	B	45%	100	C
70%	100	A	58%	100	B	41%	100	C
86%	100	A	51%	100	B	32	75	C
60%	100	A	55%	100	B	-----
37	50	A	50%	100	B	275

	450		500
	GRADE	MAX MARKS	VALUE	QUALITY POINTS
60-100%	A	450	4	1800
50-59%	B	500	3	1500

Why CMU?

Today's world requires a global perspective. As a student interested in studying outside of your home country, it is important to interact and engage with diverse people and cultures. CMU provides an excellent home base to explore global perspectives and enrich your educational experience.

What are the general criteria and desired qualification for admission?

General Criteria

CMU looks for students whose personal characteristics suggest that they will make the most of the opportunities at CMU, both in academic and non-academic areas. They seek those whose presence will enhance the experience of other students. Therefore, they value characteristics such as motivation, involvement, interpersonal skills, communication skills, leadership, analytical skills, and tolerance of uncertainty.

Desired Qualifications

The Admissions Committee looks for excellence – applicants with high academic potential and achievement, and strong motivation and leadership potential. High academic potential and achievement are normally reflected in high test scores, excellent academic records, and recommendations that go beyond the usual polite endorsement.

What is the teaching style for professors at CMU?

CMU faculty employ a variety of teaching methods, including lecture, case study, team projects, writings, problem sets, presentations, company visits, guest speakers, and other theoretical and applied teaching methods. The teaching method used in a class is the choice of the individual professor and is chosen to best facilitate learning for that subject matter.

What is the average class size?

Core classes have approximately 30 students. These subjects typically have small discussion sections in which you have the opportunity to discuss conceptual issues and work on problem sets. Elective subjects typically have 15 to 20 students (although a few number as high as 50 for SAP), and seminars may have even fewer students.

Should I expect a more collaborative or competitive environment?

CMU encourages collaboration amongst students through organized learning groups. Such as the section and learning teams. The learning teams consisting of six to seven students who work together on graded projects and as a study group throughout their MBA program. CMU assigns these groups during orientation to immediately start cultivating an important sense of camaraderie.

Where do most CMU International students live?

Central Michigan University offers a variety of accommodations in residence halls and on-campus apartments. Most students choose to live off campus. Affordable housing can be found close to the campus and near the public transportation system.

Arriving in Mount Pleasant: Mount Pleasant, Michigan, does not have an airport located in the city. However, there are two small airports located within an hour's drive from campus. Office of International Education co-ordinates the airport pick-up schedule, they offer rides from either the MBS Airport in Saginaw, Michigan or from the Capital City Airport in Lansing, Michigan.

Entrance Test Syllabus

MBA Program JNTUH Collaboration with Central Michigan University (CMU)

The test consists of three separate sections:

Quantitative Section	Multiple Choice type
	Data Sufficiency
	Problem Solving
Verbal Section	Multiple choice type
	Critical Reasoning
	Reading Comprehension
Integrated Reasoning Section	Sentence Correction
	Multiple choice type Reasoning

Quantitative Section

The Quantitative section measures the ability to reason quantitatively, solve quantitative problems, and interpret graphic data. Two types of multiple-choice questions are used in the Quantitative section:

1. Problem solving
2. Data Sufficiency

Problem solving and data sufficiency questions are intermingled throughout the Quantitative section. Both types of questions require basic knowledge of:

- Arithmetic
- Elementary algebra
- Commonly known concepts of geometry

Verbal Section

The Verbal section measures the ability to read and comprehend written material, to reason and evaluate arguments, and to correct written material to conform to standard written English. Because the Verbal section includes reading section from several different content areas, you may be generally familiar with some of the material; however, neither the reading passages nor the questions assume detailed knowledge of the topics discussed. Three types of multiple-choice question are used in the Verbal section:

1. Reading comprehension
2. Critical reasoning
3. Sentence Correction

Integrated Reasoning Section

The integrated reasoning section involves some type of reasoning skills and analysis of data given to answer the question. The types of questions in IR sections are Table Analysis Graphics Interpretation, Multi-source Reasoning the two part Analysis.
