Answers for Frequently Asked Questions

The objective of this document is to clear any doubts. You can reach out to Sesha Rao for further clarifications at sesha_cpu@jntuh.ac.in

1. Hackathon Process

1. Interested Faculty members sign up as Jury panelists using the link provided in the 'JNTUH Jury Invitation' mailer

2. Interested colleges sign up as participating college in the 'JNTUH SPOC invitation' mailer

3. After the SPOCs from colleges sign up as above, they will be intimated about the theme, hackathon topic and other details

4. Then their students can register on the online platform

5. Students from any branch or discipline are allowed to participate

6. Students from 2nd and 3rd year also can participate if they are interested

7. Students can form their teams online, after they register

8. Students work within their teams and then submit prototypes for Jury evaluation

9. The JNTUH Faculty Jury members and other online Jury panelists will evaluate the submitted projects and post their judgment online

10. Webinars will be conducted for Jury members, SPOCs and students to explain about the online hackathon process

11. An induction webinar for SPOC's of all registered collegeswill be conducted on 22-9-2020

12. Hackathon will be launched online on 24-9-2020

13. A mentoring session of a Livestream - Webinar on Design Thinking by a UI/UX Expert will be conducted on 27-9-2020

14. Continuous mentoring will be provided online to all participating students all throughout the hackathon competition period

15. Prize distribution and announcement by Vice-Chancellor 14-10-2020