It contains 4.60 crores of books and to share it as much as possible students to know and reach this priceless knowledge – Reg.

With reference to the subject cited, the National digital library created by Central government for students for all subjects below is the link-<https://ndl.iitkgp.ac.in>. It contains 4.60 crores of books and to share it as much as possible students to know and reach this priceless knowledge.

National Digital Library of India (NDLI) is a virtual repository of learning resources which is not just a repository with search/browse facilities but provides a host of services for the learner community. It is sponsored and mentored by Ministry of Education, Government of India, through its National Mission on Education through Information and Communication Technology (NMEICT). Filtered and federated searching is employed to facilitate focused searching so that learners can find the right resource with least effort and in minimum time. NDLI provides user group-specific services such as Examination Preparatory for School and College students and job aspirants. Services for Researchers and general learners are also provided. NDLI is designed to hold content of any language and provides interface support for 10 most widely used Indian languages. It is built to provide support for all academic levels including researchers and life-long learners, all disciplines, all popular forms of access devices and differently-abled learners. It is designed to enable people to learn and prepare from best practices from all over the world and to facilitate researchers to perform inter-linked exploration from multiple sources. It is developed, operated and maintained from Indian Institute of Technology Kharagpur.

In view of the above, all the Directors/Principals of Constituent, Autonomous and Affiliated Colleges of JNTUH are requested to inform your college faculty and students to utilise the National Digital Library of India (NDLI) virtual repository of learning resources at <https://ndl.iitkgp.ac.in> for all subjects.

Yours sincerely,
